one.

In such investments the capital is locked up and you are not sure of a return of even the principal, for often there is a depreciation and somewhere they have satisfactory assurance of its restoration plus the interest thereon, thereby seuring an assured income.

For this reason such investments as the Debenture Bonds and First-mortgage Notes issued by this Company especially commend themselves to all shrewd investors. They are absolutely safe and 6 per cent interest, respectively, and per-ndt the investment of any sum from $100 to $100,000.

THE ENCAMPMENT STAR. of veterans of the war can be obtained than the daily issues of The Star. Every number will man of the state committee in Ohio thought it would be a good idea to have a lot of meetings thing ready for departure this morning the man of the state committee in Ohio thought it would be a good idea to have a lot of meetings sengers were hurried out to notify the mer of the battalion. The order further instri be filled with illustrations and letter press of the most interesting character covering the historical events, memories of which will be revived by the great reunion, as well as the happenings of each day graphically reported. The papers issued during the week will form a complete history of this memorable gathering. If you cannot come to the encampreent the next to speak state election in '80 so that the returns might be read by the speakers from the platform. I spoke at Urbana. I waited until the last to speak so as to read the returns. I spoke for an hour, looking around every now and then for the messenger boy, who never came. Afterward I learned that some news from Maine had been received, but it had not been thought wise to have it announced at the meeting. There was no significance in the democratic victory then and there is no significance in the reduction of our mandal terms of the battalion. The order further instructed the men to provide themselves with two days' rations.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

Secretary Charles Foster Sees No Significance in the Reduced Republican Majority There was a considerable interest here in the returns from Maine, and the democrats are inclined to make demonstrations of gratification because they have reduced the republican majority. Republicans say that the result is fully as favorable as they expected. Secretary Foster of the treasury said to a STAR reporter: "The reason the republican majority was not larger was that people did not vote. There was no excitement over the election, it being regarded as a sure thing anyhow. We were all informed as to the situation. Mr. Manley has told us all along that he would not be able to get out the full republican vote at this September election. I do not think the lack of interest will extend to the November election. TO PUT DOWN THE REVOLT. The Naval Reserve and the Militia Depart for Fire Island.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 .- Acting under the orders of Commander Jacob W. Miller of the first battalion naval reserve, under orders of Gov. Flower over 50 per cent of the battalion reported for service this morning at pier 36, forth river. The men were notified last night

About 300 members of the sixty-ninth regiment at 10:30 a. m. also proceeded from their armory and joined the naval reserves at the foot of Spring street, North river, where they also embarked on the iron steamboat Pegasus for Fire Island.

Wires that there have been two deaths on board the Wyoming—one a child, due to bronchitis, and the other a man, who died just before the telegram was sent. He does not think it was a cholera case, but will make an autopsy.

Previous to leaving the armory Col. Cav-anagh made an address to the command, in which he said: "We go to Fire Island to do our duty, and if we are driven from the island I am confident there will not be a man alive to tell the tale tomorrow morning."

The sixty-ninth has three days' provisions.

The Cepheus with her cargo of helpless women and delicate children was still anchored in the channel off Fire island, and their sufferings during the night are described as having been most intense. Men paced the decks all night or reclined upon the bare decks while snatching a few hours of restless sleep. The women and children huddled together, crying and praying, in the warmest corner to be found, or slept the sleep of exhaustion upon the seats of the excursion boat ff lucky enough to secure such points of vantage. Delicate ladies tried to rest upon camp stools, or even upon the floor, and one and all bitterly bewailed their harsh fate and the devilish hard heartedness of the bay men of Long Island.
